2

DLX Europe will clear the marker through customs for you.

Your marker (and all other ordered items) will be shipped to DLX Europe, along with our regular supply shipments of DLX / Shocker / Freak products.

3

DLX Europe will issue you an invoice.

This will be for:

- ★ customs duty
- ★ flat fee for processing and handling
- ★ shipping to your final destination
- ★ VAT according to your EU status

DLX Europe is based in Germany, and supplies retail customers with their national VAT as well as resellers with intra-community supply of goods, given you can supply a valid VAT-ID.

All local requirements will be addressed, like "F-stamp" and reduced speed for Germany for example.

4

Receive your Adrenaline Luxe AIRE!

Once all fees are settled, your marker will be shipped together with a proper EU invoice. DLX Europe will be your first point of contact, if you encounter problems or have questions, our technicians will be there to assist and solve your problems.
